Contents

Foreword....9
Opening Address....11

Romania joining the EMU under reforms....13
Author: *Rozália Pál

1. Introduction – the EMU viewed in terms of the Optimal Currency Area Theory....13
2. Romania joining EMU from "its own self-interest and welfare perspective"....21
3. Competitiveness....23
   3.1. Price competitiveness through RER versus other market drivers....23
   3.2. Cross-country differences matter: overview of real competitiveness....28
   3.3. Romania's real convergence....33
4. What lies ahead? Three alternative scenarios....36
5. Conclusions....38

References....39

Fiscal sustainability in Romania....41
Author: *Laurian Lungu

1. Introduction....41
2. Background....42
3. The shrinking fiscal space....45
4. Debt tolerance – what debt level can be sustained?....49
5. Policy recommendations....52

References....53

Fiscal discipline and economic growth – the case of Romania .....55
Authors: Ionuþ Dumitru and *Rãzvan Stanca

1. How to conduct the fiscal policy during the business cycle? ....55
2. Empirical evidence of procyclicality and deficit bias in developing markets .....57
3. Structural budget deficit – utilization and estimation methods .60
4. The structural budget deficit and the business cycle in Romania .....61
5. Conclusions .....71
References.....71

Public sector pay and inequality in Romania.....75
Authors: Liviu Voinea and *Flaviu Mihãescu

1. Introduction and context.....75
2. Literature review .....77
3. Empirical findings.....79
4. The public sector pay in Romania: recent developments.....93
5. Conclusions .....94
References.....95